

Brief CV:

Margaret Wu has a background in statistics and educational measurement. She has had an extensive involvement in large-scale assessment programs including PISA and TIMSS. Margaret is a co-author of two item response modelling software programs: ACER ConQuest and TAM (an R package). She has recently published a textbook, Educational Measurement for Applied Researchers. Margaret has taught a number of courses in educational assessment, and conducted many workshops both in Australia and internationally.